

You likely joined SHRP to get connected – to essential HR resources, relevant educational events, and the Chicagoland HR community. As HR professionals face greater and greater challenges in these uncertain times, it's even more important for you and your organization to stay connected to SHRP.

Transition Assistance

Stay connected to your SHRP network during your transition and take advantage of our unique resources...

Reduced Dues for Members in Transition

Work your network through our Career Exchange Roundtables

Featured monthly in the SHRP newsletter, "Member in Transition" provides front page exposure among local HR professionals who may be aware of new opportunities.

Visit our online Career Center and sign up for email Job Flashes to receive notices of new job postings.

Networking & Professional Development

SHRP educational programs equip you with up-to-the-minute knowledge on emerging business and HR-related initiatives that you can apply at your organization – right now.

Free Members-Only Roundtables

Local Educational Events

No Travel Costs!

SHRP Committees

Recertification Hours

Certification Programs

PHR, SPHR, HRCI & Exam Prep Programs

Free, Local Resources

Legal Hotline

Free consultation (once per quarter) with SHRP's Legislative Liaison, a labor and employment attorney, when you want to discuss general labor or employment law issues.

Members-Only Roundtables

Connect to the Chicago-area HR community for free.

Exchange ideas, make new connections, and tap into the expertise within the local HR community.

Online HR Resources

Reference material, Illinois- and Chicago-area labor links, and the SHRP Career Center. All just a click away.

Join SHRP on LinkedIn

to connect with local HR professionals, find answers to your HR questions and participate in discussions on Chicagoland HR issues.

NOW more than ever. Stay connected to